Letter from Fr Bernard

Angels in heaven - and down to earth!

In our magnificent east window installed in 1898, seventeen years after the church was consecrated to commemorate the reign of Queen Victoria, the central figure is of Christ the King robed as a priest. Four angels stand on both sides of him engaged in the life and worship of Heaven. Space does not allow me to describe what each angel is doing, but I would happily tell you some time after service in church.

Unfortunately, when the reredos was designed and installed in 1925 it obscured important parts of the window, covering up the four living creatures (see Rev 4), and a glorious picture of the Paschal.

Even worse, in 1928 (and what would have been contrary to the wishes of our esteemed and famous architect, Norman Shaw R.A.), the huge and heavy screen and Rood figures, covered the view of the window, altar and reredos, from most parts of the nave. This ruined the concept of openness and space which Shaw had wanted to create. So now only choir members can see the whole window, and the rest of us catch a glimpse, as we approach the altar to receive the sacrament. Go to the gates sometime and see the whole window.

Now let us come down to earth! The latest two angels of our 87 were installed in 2007, in the new glass doors to a design by the late Graeme Willson. They are full size figures who meet us face to face as we enter the church. As you approach, they seem to be guarding the church, but at the slightest touch on the door, they let you in, and greet you. Then, as we leave the church they wave us goodbye, reminding us that angels are not just for church, but they are active all the time out in the world where we are - never alone, but guided and loved by God. Fr Bernard

Let Us Pray

God our Father,
in a wonderful way you guide the work of angels and also ourselves.
May those who serve you constantly in heaven
keep our lives safe from all harm on earth.
Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Amen

Our Hymn

Around the throne of God a band of glorious angels ever stand;
bright things they see, sweet harps they hold,
and on their heads are crowns of gold.

Some wait around him, ready still to sing his praise and do his will;
and some, when he commands them, go to guard his servants here below.

Lord, give thy angels every day command to guide us on our way, and bid them every evening keep their watch around us while we sleep.

So shall no wicked thing draw near,
to do us harm or cause us fear;
and we shall dwell, when life is past,
with angels round thy throne at last.

The Archdeacon's Visitation for South Craven & Wharfedale Deanery will take place via Zoom at 7.00 pm on Thursday 24th June. The Churchwardens will be sworn into their new roles by the Archdeacon. Readers, members of the PCC and other supporters are invited to attend. If you wish to attend, please contact Vickie at the Parish Office for the meetings details via Zoom.

In this Church Times webinar, we will explore how the Church talks - or fails to talk - about class.

How does social background affect someone's experience of church community, or the process of exploring vocation?

Our panel will consider what class distinctions mean in 21st century England, and how these intersect with race, wealth and poverty. We'll look at where progress has been made and ask what still needs to change. There will be plenty of time for comments and questions from the audience.

Tickets are £10, or £5 for Church Times subscribers. Free tickets are available for anyone for whom cost would be a barrier to attending this webinar. This event will be broadcast live via YouTube and recorded. A ticket allows you to join the event live and to watch the recording at a time of your choice.

The Lockdown Recordings - a new CD

You will all know that members of our choir have been working hard recording a varied repertoire, at a rate of one every 2 - 3 weeks, ever since the first lockdown last Spring. The master-mind behind all this has been Dr Geoffrey Cloke, whose unstinting work mixing our individual efforts has made all this possible. As a result we still have a choir who will still be able to sing together when the restrictions are finally lifted (?) Geoff has now compiled a CD of the whole series. Many of the pieces are old favourites like Panis Angelicus, O Thou the central orb and The strife is o'er; some are new additions to the repertoire, including a couple of pieces which were recorded within a few days of their composition, including my carol 'Nowel, nowel!' and an Easter antiphon, Faith, hope and charity. Two of Geoff's pieces are also included. The final effort was a rousing hymn, 'There's a wideness in God's mercy', to a tune written by Maurice Bevan, born 100 years ago this year. Many of these have been used in Fr Philip's filmed masses or added to the newsletters, but we thought people might like to have a more permanent record of the project - and we wanted to collect some much needed money to support St Margaret's ailing finances, so a contribution of at least £10 will be requested if you would like a copy. Do ask in church on Sundays, or email me at rathbone.cb@gmail.com
Christopher
