Mass Setting

Harwood in A flat

Opening Hymn

365

Collect Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: help us so to hear them, to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and for ever hold fast the hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Hebrews 7. 23-end

The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office; but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues for ever. Consequently he is able for all time to save those who approach God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them. For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. Unlike the other high priests, he has no need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins, and then for those of the people; this he did once for all when he offered himself. For the law appoints as high priests those who are subject to weakness, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect for ever.

PSALM 126 In Convertendo

- 1 When the lord restored the | fortunes · of | Zion,
then | were we · like | those who | dream
- 2 Then was our mouth | filled with | laughter
and our | tongue with | songs of | joy.
- 3 Then said they a- | mong the | nations,
'The | Lord has · done | great things | for them',
- 4 The Lord has indeed done | great things | for us,
and | there-fore | we re- | joiced.
- 5 Restore again our | fortunes, · O | Lord,
as the | river · beds | of the | desert.
- 6 Those who | sow in | tears,
shall | reap with | songs of | joy.
- 7 Those who go out weeping | bearing · the | seed,
will come back with shouts of | joy, · bearing | their sheaves | with them.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia.

Welcome with meekness the implanted word
that has the power to save your souls.

All Alleluia.

Gospel Reading Mark 10. 46-end

As Jesus and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, 'Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!' Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, 'Son of David, have mercy on me!' Jesus stood still and said, 'Call him here.' And they called the blind man, saying to him, 'Take heart; get up, he is calling you.' So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. Then Jesus said to him, 'What do you want me to do for you?' The blind man said to him, 'My teacher, let me see again.' Jesus said to him, 'Go; your faith has made you well.' Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

Mission Action Plan Prayer: *Thanks be to you, our Lord Jesus Christ, for all the benefits which you have given us, for all the pains and insults you have borne for us. Organ Recital

Friday, November 5th at 12.30pm

The November Recital (may contain fireworks but only of a musical variety) is a programme of music by four English composers writing in the 1950s. Two are familiar figures who composed a great deal of beautiful and useful music for church choirs, namely Dr Harold Darke (famous for Darke in F) and Sir William Harris (Holy is the true light is to be sung at Evensong the Sunday before, October 31st). Darke's piece is called 'Retrospection', dedicated to the memory of Healey Willan, and doesn't seem to have been performed until the 80s. Harris's piece is called Fantasy Prelude which also seems not to have been published till 1983 (Harris's centenary). The other two composers are York Bowen, who was a major composer of piano music, concertos etc, who wrote his Fantasy in 1951 for the Festival of Britain; and Eric Templeton, famous for his Elizabethan Serenade for strings, and a conductor of orchestral 'light music'. His Short Prelude and exciting Paean are unusually invigorating for the period!

Also on Friday, November 5th, Cant and Dec rehearse at 6.15pm, SMS rehearse at 7.00pm and Social Time takes place in the Parish Hall at 7.45pm. The church choir rehearses together at 7.45pm – 9.00pm.

ST MARGARET'S EMERGENCY APPEAL

Headlines

- Total giving is down c £40,000 on a 'normal' year
- Hall and letting income is down c £30,000
- Our parish share this year is £105,000, but we forecast only being able to pay around £37,000
- The good news is that our costs are under very tight control - we have spent far less this year: (expenditure: £90,000) in comparison to 2019 (expenditure: £224,000).

Parish Share

This is the contribution that every parish makes to resource ministry across the Diocese. It pays for Fr Alex's ministry, the training of new priests, housing costs, support staff costs, and so on. We are one of the wealthier parishes in the country, so our share is relatively high - part of our contribution is not just paying for our own ministry costs here, but supporting ministry in tougher areas too.

The consequence of us not paying our share is that a church in vacancy will need to go without a priest for longer. This isn't just about spiritual ministry; many of the churches that our share support run foodbanks, credit unions, and all sorts of things that help people practically.

How you can help

Any gift you can make, large or small, would be very gratefully received. We have a number of exciting new initiatives in the pipeline for next year that will help us to raise our profile in the town and engage with businesses and individuals in meaningful ways. But for now, we just need to pay as much of our share as we possibly can.
