Collect

Almighty Father, whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of all: govern the hearts and minds of those in authority, and bring the families of the nations, divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin, to be subject to his just and gentle rule; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Hebrews 10. 11-14, 19-25

Every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, 'he sat down at the right hand of God', and since then has been waiting 'until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet.' For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified. Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

PSALM 16 Conserva me, Domine

- 1 Preserve me, O God, for in you have I | ta-ken | refuge;
I have said to the Lord, 'You are my lord, | all my | good
de- | pends on you.'
- 2 All my delight is upon the godly that are | in the | land,
upon | those who · are | noble · in | heart.
- 3 Though the idols are legion that | many · run | after,
their drink offerings of blood I will not offer,
neither make mention of their | names u- | pon my | lips.

4 The Lord himself is my | portion · and my | cup;
 in | your hands · a-|lone is · my | fortune.
 5 My share has fallen in a | fair — | land;
 indeed, I | have a | good-ly | heritage.
 6 I will bless the Lord who has | given · me | counsel,
 and in the night watches | he in-| structs my | heart.
 7 I have set the Lord | always · be-|fore me;
 he is at my right | hand; * I | shall not | fall.
 8 Wherefore my heart is glad and my | spirit · re-|joices;
 my flesh | also · shall | rest se-|cure.
 9 For you will not abandon my | soul to | Death,
 nor suffer your | faithful · one to | see the | Pit.
 10 You will show me the | path of | life;
 in your presence is the fullness of joy and in your right hand are | pleasures · for | ev-er-|more.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia.

Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord.

Peace in heaven and glory in the highest heaven.

All Alleluia.

Gospel Reading                      Mark 13. 1-8

As he came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, 'Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!' Then Jesus asked him, 'Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.' When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, 'Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?' Then Jesus began to say to them, 'Beware that no one leads you astray. Many will come in my name and say, "I am he!" and they will lead many astray. When you hear of wars and rumours of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birth pangs.

Homily                                      Fr Alex

Offertory Hymn                        334

Communion Anthem                Douglas Guest: For the fallen

Communion Hymn                    *I vow to thee, my country, all earthly things above
 Entire and whole and perfect, the service of my love
 The love that asks no question, the love that stands the test*

*That lays upon the altar, the dearest and the best
The love that never falters, the love that pays the price
The love that makes undaunted the final sacrifice*

*And there's another country, I've heard of long ago
Most dear to them that love her, most great to them that know
We may not count her armies, we may not see her king
Her fortress is a faithful heart, her pride is suffering
And soul by soul, and silently her shining bounds increase
And her ways are ways of gentleness, and all her paths are peace*

Post Communion Prayer: God of peace, whose Son Jesus Christ proclaimed the kingdom and restored the broken to wholeness of life: look with compassion on the anguish of the world, and by your healing power make whole both people and nations; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Mission Action Plan Prayer: Thanks be to you, our Lord Jesus Christ, for all the benefits which you have given us, for all the pains and insults you have borne for us. O most merciful Redeemer, Friend and Brother, may we know you more clearly, love you more dearly, and follow you more nearly. Day by Day. Amen.

The Act of Remembrance follows (see separate sheet).

Organ Postlude                      Howells: Psalm prelude (set 2 n 1: Ps 130, De profundis clamavi ad te, Domine)

Do please join us in the Parish Hall after the service for refreshments.

Organ Recital

Friday, December 3rd at 12.30pm

The Organ Recital on Friday, December 3rd at 12.30pm will feature the famous Prelude and fugue on BACH by Liszt: as you would expect from this composer, the music is virtuosic to a degree, and is based throughout on the four musical notes of Bach's name (in German notation these are B flat, A, C, and B natural). The piece was written in 1855 for Liszt's brilliant young pupil, Winterberger, to play on the then brand-new organ in Merseburg Cathedral. It will be prefaced with a set of short Hymn-tune preludes that I wrote back in March, when I didn't have services and recitals to play. The references to each hymn in the hymn-book will be given, so you can follow what I've done with each tune. Christopher
