10.45AM SUNG MASS

Mass Setting      Lotti: Missa brevis in E flat

Opening Hymn      12

Collect      O Lord, raise up, we pray, your power and come among us, and with great might succour us; that whereas, through our sins and wickedness we are grievously hindered in running the race that is set before us, your bountiful grace and mercy may speedily help and deliver us; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, to whom with you and the Holy Spirit, be honour and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading      Malachi 3. 1-4

See, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight—indeed, he is coming, says the Lord of hosts. But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap; he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the descendants of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, until they present offerings to the Lord in righteousness. Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the Lord as in the days of old and as in former years.

Psalm/Canticle      Benedictus

chant by CBR (12.xj.21)

The image shows a musical score for the Benedictus canticle. It consists of four staves: Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass. The music is written in a 2/2 time signature with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The Soprano and Alto parts are written on a treble clef, while the Tenor and Bass parts are written on a bass clef. The music is a simple, homophonic setting of the text, with the vocal lines moving in parallel motion. The score is handwritten and includes a note that it is a chant by CBR (12.xj.21).

1. Blessèd be the Lord the | God of | Isra'el,
who has come to his | people · and | set them | free.
2. He has raised up for us a | mighty | saviour,
born of the | house of · his | servant | David.
3. Through his holy prophets God | promised · of | old
to save us from our enemies, from the | hands of | all that | hate us,
4. To show | mercy · to our | ancestors,
and to re | member · his | holy covenant.
5. This was the oath God swore to our | father | Abraham:
to set us free from the | hands · of our | enemies,

6. Free to | worship | him with·out | fear,
holy and righteous in his sight | all the | days of · our | life.
7. And you, child, shall be called the | prophet · of the Most | High,
for you will go before the Lord | to pre · pare his | way,
8. To give his people knowledge | of sal- | vation
by the forgiveness of | all their | sins.
9. In the tender com- | passion of · our | God
the dawn from on | high shall | break u- | pon us,
10. To shine on those who dwell in | darkness · and the | shadow · of | death, and to guide our | feet in· to the | way of | peace.

Gospel Reading    Luke 3. 1-6

In the fifteenth year of the reign of Emperor Tiberius, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was ruler of Galilee, and his brother Philip ruler of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias ruler of Abilene, during the high-priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John son of Zechariah in the wilderness. He went into all the region around the Jordan, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, as it is written in the book of the words of the prophet Isaiah, 'The voice of one crying out in the wilderness: "Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways made smooth; and all flesh shall see the salvation of God."'
