Mass Setting Stanford in C

Opening Hymn 452

Collect Almighty God, who alone can bring order to the unruly wills and passions of sinful humanity: give your people grace so to love what you command and to desire what you promise, that, among the many changes of this world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading 1 Corinthians 15. 12-20

If Christ is proclaimed as raised from the dead, how can some of you say there is no resurrection of the dead? If there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not been raised; and if Christ has not been raised, then our proclamation has been in vain and your faith has been in vain. We are even found to be misrepresenting God, because we testified of God that he raised Christ—whom he did not raise if it is true that the dead are not raised. For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised. If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins. Then those also who have died in Christ have perished. If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied. But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have died.

Psalm 1 Beatus vir, qui non abiit

Walk in the law of the Lord

- 1 Blessed are they who have not walked in the | counsel · of the | wicked,
nor lingered in the way of sinners, *
- 2 Their delight is in the | law of · the | Lord
and they meditate on his | law — | day and | night.
- 3 Like a tree planted by streams of water bearing fruit in due season,
with leaves that do not wither, * what-|ever · they | do, it · shall | prosper.
- 4 As for the wicked, * it is not | so with | them;
they are like chaff which the | wind — | blows a-|way.
- 5 Therefore the wicked shall not be able to | stand in · the | judgement,
nor the sinner in the congre-|ga-tion | of the | righteous.
- 6 For the Lord knows the | way of · the | righteous,
but the | way of · the | wicked · shall | perish.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia,
We do not live by bread alone,
But by every word that comes from the mouth of God.
Alleluia.

Gospel Reading Luke 6. 17-26

He came down with them and stood on a level place, with a great crowd of his disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea, Jerusalem, and the coast of Tyre and Sidon. They had come to hear him and to be healed of their diseases; and those who were troubled with unclean spirits were cured. And all in the crowd were trying to touch him, for power came out from him and healed all of them. Then he looked up at his disciples and said: 'Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. 'Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. 'Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh. 'Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice on that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets. 'But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. 'Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry. 'Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep. 'Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.

If you find yourself in a financial emergency, you are very welcome to speak confidentially with the Vicar, and we may be able to help.

DIARY DATES

Organ Recital

Friday, March 4th at 12.30 pm

The recital on March 4th is a selection of music by the great J.S.Bach: we start with a show-off prelude and straight-forward fugue in C; then two more chorales from the Leipzig set of '18' which Bach revised late in life for publication - which didn't happen. (This completes the set, if you've attended all the recitals over the last 10 years or so!) The highlight is a frightfully clever set of variations on Luther's Christmas hymn Von Himmel hoch (from heaven on high to earth I come): each of the 5 variations incorporates a canon (one part copying the other but starting on a different note): it was composed in 1747 for the Leipzig 'Society for Musical Science' which was obsessed with clever musical devices such as canon - Bach was a shoo-in for membership. Finally I shall play a splendid Fantasia in C minor followed by an incomplete fugue - the rest is lost (or was never completed) so I have written a few bars to finish it off and make it performable, however fore-shortened.
