8.00 AM LOW MASS

PALM SUNDAY

Collect Almighty and everlasting God, who in your tender love towards the human race sent your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ to take upon him our flesh and to suffer death upon the cross: grant that we may follow the example of his patience and humility, and also be made partakers of his resurrection; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

First Reading Isaiah 50. 4 – 9a

The Lord God has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning he wakens— wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught. The Lord God has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backwards. I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting. The Lord God helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame; he who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me. It is the Lord God who helps me; who will declare me guilty? All of them will wear out like a garment; the moth will eat them up.

Psalm 118 1, 2, 19-29 Confitemini Domino

- 1 O give thanks to the Lord, for | he is | good;
his | mercy · en-|dures for | ever.
- 2 Let Israel | now pro-|claim,
'His | mercy · en-|dures for | ever.'
- 19 Open to me the | gates of | righteousness,
that I may | enter ·and give | thanks to · the | Lord.
- 20 This is the | gate of · the | Lord;
the | righteous · shall | en-ter | through it.
- 21 I will give thanks to you, for | you have | answered me
and have be-|come — | my sal-|vation.
- 22 The stone which the | builders · re-|jected
has be-|come the · chief | cor-ner-|stone.
- 23 This is the | Lord's — | doing,
and it is | marvel-lous | in our | eyes.
- 24 This is the day that the | Lord has | made;
we will re-|joice — | and be | glad in it.
- 25 Come, O Lord, and | save us · we | pray.
Come, Lord, | send us | now pros-|perity.

- 26 Blessed is he who comes in the | name of · the | Lord;
we | bless you · from the | house of · the | Lord.
- 27 The Lord is God; * he has | given · us | light;
link the pilgrims with cords | right to · the | horns of · the | altar.
- 28 You are my | God and · I will | thank you;
you are my | God and | I will · ex-|alt you.
- 29 O give thanks to the Lord, for | he is | good;
his | mercy · en-|dures for | ever.

Gospel Acclamation

Praise to you, O Christ, King of eternal glory.
Christ humbled himself and became obedient unto death,
even death on a cross.
Therefore God has highly exalted him
and given him the name that is above every name.

All Praise to you, O Christ, King of eternal glory.

Gospel Reading Luke 19. 28 - 40

After he had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. When he had come near Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, saying, 'Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, "Why are you untying it?" just say this: "The Lord needs it."' So those who were sent departed and found it as he had told them. As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, 'Why are you untying the colt?' They said, 'The Lord needs it.' Then they brought it to Jesus; and after throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it. As he rode along, people kept spreading their cloaks on the road. As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen, saying, 'Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!' Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, 'Teacher, order your disciples to stop.' He answered, 'I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out.'

Post Communion Prayer Lord Jesus Christ, you humbled yourself in taking the form of a servant, and in obedience died on the cross for our salvation: give us the mind to follow you and to proclaim you as Lord and King, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Annual Parish Church Meeting

Sunday, April 24th

This year's APCM will be held on Sunday 24 April in the Parish Hall at 11.15am immediately following the Sung Mass service which will take place at the earlier time of 10am.

Reports

Thank you to all those who submitted reports. These are now available to view here. The Annual Accounts are available to view on our website stmargaretsilkley.org

The Minutes of the 2021 APCM meeting are available to view on our website

The Agenda for this year's meeting is available to view on our website

There will be a small number of paper copies of the above available to view at the back of church, however where possible please view online.

Nominations

At the meeting there will be the election of the two Churchwardens. There are currently no vacancies for Parochial Church Council members or Deanery Synod representatives. Nominations for Churchwarden are open to anyone who is on the Electoral Role of St Margaret's and who satisfies the other requirements specified on the nomination form. Churchwardens are elected annually and may stand for six consecutive periods of office. Nomination forms are available here and at the back of church. On completion they should be returned to either myself or Fr Alex. They can also be left in the safe at the back of church. Currently we have had one nomination:

Alison Stretton Nominated: Deidre Andre Seconded: Adam Wilson

Thank you Bethany Harrison, Secretary to PCC

DIARY DATES

Organ Recital

Friday, May 6th at 12.30 pm

This will be a mostly gentle, meditative half an hour's music, including the beautiful and tuneful 'Three quiet pieces' of Whitlock's Reflections and several quiet but colourful selections from Vierne's 'Pieces in free style'. The only fireworks are in Vierne's Cortège and Divertissement and in the dazzling final Scherzo by Enrico Bossi. Christopher

Save the Date

Civic Service celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee

Sunday June 5th at 6.30 pm St Margaret's

Ilkley Town Council is inviting residents to save the date for a Civic Service to enable residents in the town to celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee in June. We are delighted to host the civic service at St Margaret's. The service of words and music will include contributions from community groups and people of all ages from across the town, and there will be formal representation from local dignitaries and organisations. It will follow a community event on the Grove between 12 pm and 4 pm also in honour of the Jubilee. It is hoped the service will be an inclusive and joyful occasion celebrating the local community and providing an opportunity to give thanks for, and commemorate, the years of dedicated service given by Her Majesty. More details to follow.
