10.45 AM SUNG MASS

Mass Setting Stanford in C

Introit This joyful Eastertide (NEH 121)

Opening Hymn 110

Collect Lord of all life and power, who through the mighty resurrection of your Son overcame the old order of sin and death to make all things new in him: grant that we, being dead to sin and alive to you in Jesus Christ, may reign with him in glory; to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be praise and honour, glory and might, now and in all eternity. Amen.

First Reading Acts 10. 34-43

Peter began to speak to those assembled in the house of Cornelius: 'I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.'

Psalm 118 Confitemini Domino

14 The Lord is my | strength and · my | song,
and | he has · be- | come my · sal- | vation.
15 Joyful | shouts of · sal- | vation
sound | from the | tents of · the | righteous:
16 'The right hand of the Lord does mighty deeds; *
the right hand of the Lord | rai- ses | up;
the right hand of the | Lord does | migh- ty | deeds.'

- 17 I shall not | die, but | live
and de-|clare the | works of · the | Lord.
- 18 The Lord has | punished · me | sorely,
but he has not | given · me | over · to | death.
- 19 Open to me the | gates of | righteousness,
that I may | enter · and give | thanks to · the | Lord.
- 20 This is the | gate of · the | Lord;
the | righteous · shall | en-ter | through it.
- 21 I will give thanks to you, for | you have | answered me
and have be-|come — | my sal-|vation.
- 22 The stone which the | builders · re-|jected
has be-|come the · chief | cor-ner-|stone.
- 23 This is the | Lord's — | doing,
and it is | marvel-lous | in our | eyes.
- 24 This is the day that the | Lord has | made;
we will re-|joice — | and be | glad in it.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia.

I am the first and the last, says the Lord, and the living one;

I was dead, and behold I am alive for evermore.

All Alleluia.

Gospel Reading John 20:1-18

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.' Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went towards the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes. But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping?' She said to them, 'They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.' When she had said this, she turned round and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping? For whom are you looking?' Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, 'Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.' Jesus said to her, 'Mary!' She turned and said to him in Hebrew, 'Rabbouni!' (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, 'Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, "I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God." 'Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, 'I have seen the Lord'; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

NOTICES

Thank you to everyone who gave up their time to give the church a spring clean last weekend. Your support towards our preparations for Holy Week was very much appreciated.

Mothers' Union members are reminded that the Easter Tea which was due to be held on April 22nd will not now be taking place, owing to the number of members unavailable for either health or holiday reasons. It is hoped that it will be possible to hold it sometime in May instead.

Annual Parish Church Meeting

Sunday, April 24th

This year's APCM will be held on Sunday 24 April in the Parish Hall at 11.15am immediately following the Sung Mass service which will take place at the earlier time of 10am.

Reports

Thank you to all those who submitted reports. These are now available to view at the back of church or on our website . The Annual Accounts are available to view on our website stmargaretsilkley.org

The Minutes of the 2021 APCM meeting are available to view on our website

The Agenda for this year's meeting is available to view on our website

There will be a small number of paper copies of the above available to view at the back of church, however where possible please view online.

Nominations

At the meeting there will be the election of the two Churchwardens. There are currently no vacancies for Parochial Church Council members or Deanery Synod representatives. Nominations for Churchwarden are open to anyone who is on the Electoral Role of St Margaret's and who satisfies the other requirements specified on the nomination form. Churchwardens are elected annually and may stand for six consecutive periods of office. Nomination forms are available here and at the back of church. On completion they should be returned to either myself or Fr Alex. They can also be left in the safe at the back of church. Currently we have had one nomination:

Alison Stretton Nominated: Deidre Andre Seconded: Adam Wilson

Thank you Bethany Harrison, Secretary to PCC

New Exhibition in the Parish Hall

We are delighted to host an exhibition of work produced by members of the U3A Portrait Drawing Group and General Drawing Group which meet fortnightly on Wednesday afternoons in the Parish Hall. This exhibition shows a selection of work in pencil, charcoal, ink, soft pastels, acrylics and oils. To purchase a painting contact Keith Hooper on 07710 229169. For more information about the U3a visit ilkleyu3a.org.

Mask wearing in Church

The number of new cases of Covid seems to be going up quite sharply at the moment. We're continuing to encourage people to wear masks in church and in the hall. Masks are available in church if you should forget to bring your own. Please err on the side of caution and stay at home if you feel at all unwell. Symptoms seem to range from full flu-like symptoms down to a sore throat and a headache. Please let us know if you need any practical support if you do happen to catch it.

DIARY DATES

Organ Recital

Friday, May 6th at 12.30 pm

This will be a mostly gentle, meditative half an hour's music, including the beautiful and tuneful 'Three quiet pieces' of Whitlock's Reflections and several quiet but colourful selections from Vierne's 'Pieces in free style'. The only fireworks are in Vierne's Cortège and Divertissement and in the dazzling final Scherzo by Enrico Bossi. Christopher

May Devotions

Saturday 7 May, 4.00 pm

Join us for Sung Mass as we give thanks for the Blessed Virgin Mary, and celebrate with her our Easter joy. Traditionally, the month of May is a time of devotion to Our Lady, and reflection on her motherhood of Christ. Our guest preacher will be Fr Sebastian Hamilton, a friend of Fr Alex's, who will help us explore the rich themes of this time of year, and how a devotion to Our Lady may bring us closer to her Son. All are welcome!

May Day Cake Sale

Sunday, May 8th after morning services

St Margaret's Mission Fund Cake Sale takes place on Sunday, May 8th after the Family Service and Sung Mass. All cakes welcomed. Please bring them to the Parish Hall any time from 8.30 am on the day of the sale or ring Linda Whittaker on 601144.

Civic Service celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee

Sunday June 5th at 6.30 pm St Margaret's

Ilkley Town Council is inviting residents to save the date for a Civic Service to enable residents in the town to celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee in June. We are delighted to host the civic service at St Margaret's. The service of words and music will include contributions from community groups and people of all ages from across the town, and there will be formal representation from local dignitaries and organisations. It will follow a community event on the Grove between 12 pm and 4 pm also in honour of the Jubilee. It is hoped the service will be an inclusive and joyful occasion celebrating the local community and providing an opportunity to give thanks for, and commemorate, the years of dedicated service given by Her Majesty. More details to follow.
