Opening Hymn

161 (t. 385) For Mary, Mother of the Lord

Collect

Almighty God, who looked upon the lowliness of the Blessed Virgin Mary and chose her to be the mother of your only Son: grant that we who are redeemed by his blood may share with her in the glory of your eternal kingdom; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Galatians 4. 4 – 7

But when the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, in order to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as children. And because you are children, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, 'Abba! Father!' So you are no longer a slave but a child, and if a child then also an heir, through God.

Gradual Hymn

(t. 387) Virgin born, we bow before thee

Virgin-born, we bow before thee:
Blessèd was the womb that bore thee;
Mary, mother meek and mild,
Blessèd was she in her child.

Blessèd was the breast that fed thee;
Blessèd was the hand that led thee;
Blessèd was the parent's eye
That watched thy slumbering infancy.

Blessèd she by all creation,
Who brought forth the world's Salvation;
Blessèd they, for ever blest,
Who love thee most and serve thee best.

Virgin-born, we bow before thee:
Blessèd was the womb that bore thee;
Mary, mother meek and mild,
Blessèd was she in her child.

Gospel Acclamation

Greetings, favoured one. The Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.

Gospel Reading Luke 1. 46 – 55

Mary said, 'My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour, for he has looked with favour on the lowliness of his servant. Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed; for the Mighty One has done great things for me, and holy is his name. His mercy is for those who fear him from generation to generation. He has shown strength with his arm; he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts. He has brought down the powerful from their thrones, and lifted up the lowly; he has filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away empty. He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy, according to the promise he made to our ancestors, to Abraham and to his descendants for ever.'

Homily Fr Alex

Offertory Hymn *188 ii (omit ) Ye who own the faith of Jesus

Communion Anthem Samuel Sebastian Wesley: Lead me, Lord

Communion Hymn 184 Shall we not love thee, Mother dear

Post Communion Prayer God most high, whose handmaid bore the Word made flesh: we thank you that in this sacrament of our redemption you visit us with your Holy Spirit and overshadow us by your power; strengthen us to walk with Mary the joyful path of obedience and so to bring forth the fruits of holiness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Recessional Hymn 186 Tell out, my soul, the greatness of the Lord

Organ Postlude Samuel Sebastian Wesley: Andante in E minor

NOTICES

A note on receiving from the chalice

A reminder that we are not practising 'intinction' when receiving from the chalice (dipping the host in the consecrated wine). Primarily this is with hygiene in mind, as it risks passing germs from finger tips into the wine, but it's also out of consideration for those in the congregation who are gluten intolerant; in some cases just passing the smallest particles of gluten to the wine in this way could cause a very adverse reaction.

(And don't forget that at the Last Supper, Judas Iscariot was the only one to receive bread "dipped in the dish," and as soon as he did, "Satan entered into him!" Not quite the symbolism we're looking for... (John 13. 21 – 27))

Thank you to members of the Mothers' Union and friends who supported the afternoon tea on July 22nd. Not only was it an enjoyable social occasion but between us we raised £155 towards the Ukraine Humanitarian Appeal which helps all Ukrainian refugees caught up in the disaster. Well done to all who contributed in any way!

Thank you to everyone who supported this month's organ recital which raised £149.88 for the Music Fund. Please join us on Friday, September 2nd at 12.30 pm for a recital by our guest, Gabrielle Lewis. More details on page 6.

Thank you to all who supported the Strawberry tea last Saturday. It was a wonderful, joyful occasion and raised £1120.00 for children in Haiti. Anne Wilkinson. Ilkley Baptist Church.

Exhibition in the Parish Hall

by Fr Bernard

On retirement from full time ministry in 1996, Fr Bernard studied at Bradford College with Denise Ledgerwood for many years in soft pastels and oil pastels. He has been a member of Ilkley Art Club for 26 years. More recently, he has favoured acrylic paint, which allows for intricate details in his cathedral paintings (see the East window in the York Minster painting).

The paintings are modestly priced and all proceeds will be donated to St Margaret's Development Fund. Cheques should be made to St Margaret's Parochial Church Council Ilkley and given to Fr Bernard.

St Margaret's Ilkley

The prints of Fr Bernard's original painting (2011) were all sold. New prints are available for £20. If you would like an unframed print please speak to Fr Bernard.

There will be no evensong or family services on Sundays during August and no social time after Low Mass on Thursday, August 25th. The family services resumes on September 4th.

Summer School in the Parish Hall

Astral Acrobatics summer school takes place in the Parish Hall from Tuesday, August 23rd to Thursday, August 25th.

DIARY DATES

Organ Recital

Friday, September 2nd at 12.30 pm

The recital on September 2nd at 12.30 pm will feature Gabrielle Lewis, from Cornwall, who has been twice before to play for us. Her programme includes German Baroque music by Buxtehude, Böhm and Bach, always exciting to hear, but also includes slightly later French music, a Noël by Daquin, a gorgeous piece by Karg-Elert and more recent music by Vernon Hoyle (no, me neither) and a Norwegian set of Variations on a folktune by Bjerne Sløgedal (ditto) – lots to look forward to!

Family Service: Sunday, September 4th

The family service resumes on Sunday, September 4th. We look forward to seeing you there.
