Opening Hymn

Lord, for the years

Lord, for the years your love has kept and guided,
Urged and inspired us, cheered us on our way,
Sought us and saved us, pardoned and provided,
Lord of the years, we bring our thanks today.

Lord, for that word, the word of life which fires us,
Speaks to our hearts and sets our souls ablaze,
Teaches and trains, rebukes us and inspires us,
Lord of the word, receive your people's praise.

Lord, for our land, in this our generation,
Spirits oppressed by pleasure, wealth and care;
For young and old, for commonwealth and nation,
Lord of our land, be pleased to hear our prayer.

Lord, for our world; when we disown and doubt him,
Loveless in strength, and comfortless in pain;
Hungry and helpless, lost indeed without him,
Lord of the world, we pray that Christ may reign.

Lord, for ourselves; in living power remake us,
Self on the cross and Christ upon the throne;
Past put behind us, for the future take us,
Lord of our lives, to live for Christ alone.

Collect Let your merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of your humble servants; and that they may obtain their petitions make them to ask such things as shall please you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Hebrews 12. 18 - end

You have not come to something that can be touched, a blazing fire, and darkness, and gloom, and a tempest, and the sound of a trumpet, and a voice whose words made the hearers beg that not another word be spoken to them. (For they could not endure the order that was given, 'If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned to death.' Indeed, so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, 'I tremble with fear.')

But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering, and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel. See that you do not refuse the one who is speaking; for if they did not escape when they refused the one who warned them on earth, how much less will we escape if we reject the one who warns from heaven! At that time his voice shook the earth; but now he has promised, 'Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heaven.' This phrase 'Yet once more' indicates the removal of what is shaken—that is, created things—so that what cannot be shaken may remain. Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us give thanks, by which we offer to God an acceptable worship with reverence and awe; for indeed our God is a consuming fire.

Gradual Hymn 391 King of glory, King of peace

Gospel Acclamation

The word of the Lord endures for ever. The word of the Lord is the good news announced to you.

Gospel Reading Luke 13. 10 - 17

Now Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, 'Woman, you are set free from your ailment.' When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, 'There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day.' But the Lord answered him and said, 'You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?' When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

Homily Fr Alex

Offertory Hymn 373 (t. Coe Fen) How shall I sing that majesty

Communion Anthem Peter Hurford: Litany to the Holy Spirit

Communion Hymn 309 (i) Victim Divine, thy grace we claim

Post Communion Prayer God of our pilgrimage, you have willed that the gate of mercy should stand open for those who trust in you: look upon us with your favour that we who follow the path of your will may never wander from the way of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Recessional Hymn 436 Praise my soul, the King of heaven

Organ Postlude Paul Hindemith: Sonata 2, first movement

NOTICES

St Cuthbert Translation Festival Pilgrimage

Saturday 3 September

Each year members of Anglo-Catholic parishes from around the country make a pilgrimage to Durham to celebrate the second of St Cuthbert's feasts, the Translation of his Relics into the Cathedral. It's organised by The Society under the patronage of Saint Wilfrid and Saint Hilda, but is of course open to any parish within the Anglo-Catholic tradition.

Solemn Pontifical Mass and Procession to the Shrine of St Cuthbert is at 11.00 am (celebrant and preacher: the Bishop of Wakefield), and we would have the opportunity to visit the Cathedral's Treasury afterwards (where St Cuthbert's cross and coffin are on display, along with other relics and priceless artifacts) and get some lunch in lovely Durham. We'd go up and back in the day, probably on the train.

St Cuthbert's remains are still enshrined within the Cathedral, as are those of the Venerable Bede (and the head of St Oswald and other holy body parts) — remarkable survivals from the desecration of shrines during the Reformation — so it is a unique place of pilgrimage. Please let Fr Alex know if you'd like to come along ASAP.

Election of Churchwarden

in church on Sunday, September 11th at 10.45 am

At the last APCM we only elected one churchwarden, Alison Stretton. Happily Anne Eaton has offered her services to St Margaret's as a warden and as such we must formally elect her into the role. This election will take place in church prior to the 10.45am service on Sunday, September 11th. If anyone else would like to stand for election of churchwarden, please contact the PCC Secretary Bethany Harrison at beffy@baffin.org

Thank you to members of the Mothers' Union and friends who supported the afternoon tea on July 22nd. Not only was it an enjoyable social occasion but between us we raised £155 towards the Ukraine Humanitarian Appeal which helps all Ukrainian refugees caught up in the disaster. Well done to all who contributed in any way!

Thank you to everyone who supported this month's organ recital which raised £149.88 for the Music Fund. Please join us on Friday, September 2nd at 12.30 pm for a recital by our guest, Gabrielle Lewis. More details overleaf.

Exhibition in the Parish Hall

by Fr Bernard

On retirement from full time ministry in 1996, Fr Bernard studied at Bradford College with Denise Ledgerwood for many years in soft pastels and oil pastels. He has been a member of Ilkley Art Club for 26 years. More recently, he has favoured acrylic paint, which allows for intricate details in his cathedral paintings (see the East window in the York Minster painting).

The paintings are modestly priced and all proceeds will be donated to St Margaret's Development Fund. Cheques should be made to St Margaret's Parochial Church Council Ilkley and given to Fr Bernard.

St Margaret's Ilkley

The prints of Fr Bernard's original painting (2011) were all sold. New prints are available for £20. If you would like an unframed print please speak to Fr Bernard.

There will be no evensong or family services on Sundays during August. The family service resumes on September 4th.

Summer School in the Parish Hall

Astral Acrobatics summer school takes place in the Parish Hall from Tuesday, August 23rd to Thursday, August 25th.

DIARY DATES

Organ Recital

Friday, September 2nd at 12.30 pm

The recital on September 2nd at 12.30 pm will feature Gabrielle Lewis, from Cornwall, who has been twice before to play for us. Her programme includes German Baroque music by Buxtehude, Böhm and Bach, always exciting to hear, but also includes slightly later French music, a Noël by Daquin, a gorgeous piece by Karg-Elert and more recent music by Vernon Hoyle (no, me neither) and a Norwegian set of Variations on a folktune by Bjerne Sløgedal (ditto) – lots to look forward to!

Family Service: Sunday, September 4th

The family service resumes on Sunday, September 4th. We look forward to seeing you there.
