10.45 AM SUNG MASS

Mass Setting David Thorne: Mass of St Thomas
(printed in the back of the service booklet)

Opening Hymn 452 Stand up, and bless the Lord

Collect O God, you declare your almighty power most chiefly in showing mercy and pity: mercifully grant to us such a measure of your grace, that we, running the way of your commandments, may receive your gracious promises, and be made partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading Hebrews 13. 1 - 8, 15, 16

Let mutual love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it. Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them; those who are being tortured, as though you yourselves were being tortured. Let marriage be held in honour by all, and let the marriage bed be kept undefiled; for God will judge fornicators and adulterers. Keep your lives free from the love of money, and be content with what you have; for he has said, 'I will never leave you or forsake you.' So we can say with confidence, 'The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid. What can anyone do to me?' Remember your leaders, those who spoke the word of God to you; consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and for ever. Through him, then, let us continually offer a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name. Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

Gradual Hymn 466 Thou whose almighty word

Gospel Acclamation

I am the light of the world, says the Lord. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life.

Gospel Reading Luke 14. 1, 7 - 14

On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely. When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honour, he told them a parable. 'When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honour, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, "Give this person your place", and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place. But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, "Friend, move up higher"; then you will be honoured in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.' He said also to the one who had invited him, 'When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbours, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.'

Homily The Reverend Isobel Rathbone

Offertory Hymn 258 O Christ the same through all our story's pages

Communion Anthem Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart: Ave verum corpus

Hail, true Body, born of the Virgin Mary, who suffered for our redemption on the cross, and from whose wounded side there poured blood: be our salvation in the crisis of death.

Communion Hymn (tune 82) Draw nigh and take the body of the Lord

Draw nigh and take the body of the Lord,
And drink the holy blood for you outpoured.

Saved by that body and that holy blood,
With souls refreshed, we render thanks to God.

Salvation's giver, Christ, the only Son,
By his dear cross and blood the victory won.

Offered was he for greatest and for least,
Himself the victim, and himself the priest.

Approach ye then with faithful hearts sincere,
And take the pledges of salvation here.

Post Communion Prayer Lord of all mercy, we your faithful people have celebrated that one true sacrifice which takes away our sins and brings pardon and peace: by our communion keep us firm on the foundation of the gospel and preserve us from all sin; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Recessional Hymn 127 To thee our God we fly

Organ Postlude Basil Harwood: Cathedral Preludes no 3 in C ('to Ivor Atkins Esq.')

NOTICES

'Mirfield Family' Walsingham Pilgrimage

(very!) advance notice – Monday 18 to Friday 22 September 2023

Each year there is a pilgrimage to Walsingham for the wider 'Mirfield Family' – Companions, Society members, former students, friends, parishioners, and anyone with a connection to Mirfield, really! We have the opportunity to stay for four nights, full board, which last time was £76 per night, but may well be a little higher next year. We will need to drive down (a journey of about four hours) and back, but we can share lifts if some are willing to drive that distance.

We'll have more details in the early part of next year, but if anyone would like to express an interest in the pilgrimage now, please let Fr Alex know. We will look to confirm things and take deposits before the end of this year.

Election of Churchwarden

in church on Sunday, September 11th at 10.45 am

At the last APCM we only elected one churchwarden, Alison Stretton. Happily Anne Eaton has offered her services to St Margaret's as a warden and as such we must formally elect her into the role. This election will take place in church prior to the 10.45 am service on Sunday, September 11th. If anyone else would like to stand for election of churchwarden, please contact the PCC Secretary Bethany Harrison at beffy@biffy.com

Volunteer(s) wanted for the Parish Magazine team

With the Parish Magazine back up and running after the pandemic we are now in need of a volunteer (or two) to manage the subscribers list and to liaise with our advertisers. We produce 4 issues each year and our team meets quarterly in the Parish Hall meeting room. Our next meeting, to plan the Christmas issue, takes place on Tuesday 27th September at 10.00 am. If you would like to become part of the team or explore what is involved before deciding, please contact Hayes Williams, Editor, on 01943 601116.

Coffee Morning Talk at Ilkley Manor House
Dorothy Bradford - Rhythms of Life exhibition

To celebrate the new exhibition opening at the Manor House from Saturday 3 September there will be a talk about the exhibition given by Mary Sara (now Thomson) about Dorothy Bradford's work. Mary Sara's Hawskworth Gallery in Ilkley was a well-known venue for exhibitions by regional artists in the 1980s, and her regular column and reviews in the Yorkshire Post in the late 80s and 90s attracted an appreciative audience. The talk will be held in the Western Gallery of the Manor House on Saturday 3 September at 10.30am and will also be live streamed. To book a seat in the Manor House use this link:

Exhibition in the Parish Hall
by Fr Bernard

On retirement from full time ministry in 1996, Fr Bernard studied at Bradford College with Denise Ledgerwood for many years in soft pastels and oil pastels. He has been a member of Ilkley Art Club for 26 years. More recently, he has favoured acrylic paint, which allows for intricate details in his cathedral paintings (see the East window in the York Minster painting).

The paintings are modestly priced and all proceeds will be donated to St Margaret's Development Fund. Cheques should be made to St Margaret's Parochial Church Council Ilkley and given to Fr Bernard.

St Margaret's Ilkley

The prints of Fr Bernard's original painting (2011) were all sold. New prints are available for £20. If you would like an unframed print please speak to Fr Bernard.

DIARY DATES

Organ Recital

Friday, September 2nd at 12.30 pm

The recital on September 2nd at 12.30 pm will feature Gabrielle Lewis, from Cornwall, who has been twice before to play for us. Her programme includes German Baroque music by Buxtehude, Böhm and Bach, always exciting to hear, but also includes slightly later French music, a Noël by Daquin, a gorgeous piece by Karg-Elert and more recent music by Vernon Hoyle (no, me neither) and a Norwegian set of Variations on a folk tune by Bjerne Sløgedal (ditto) – lots to look forward to!

Family Service and Choral Evensong: Sunday, September 4th

These services resume on Sunday, September 4th. We look forward to seeing you there.
