10.45 AM SUNG MASS

Mass Setting

Christopher Rathbone: Meanwood Mass

Opening Hymn

500 Thy Kingdom come! on bended knee (congregation's request)

Collect Heavenly Father, whose blessed Son was revealed to destroy the works of the devil and to make us the children of God and heirs of eternal life: grant that we, having this hope, may purify ourselves even as he is pure; that when he shall appear in power and great glory we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

2 Thessalonians 2. 1 - 5, 13 - end

As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, brothers and sisters, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here. Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction. He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God. Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you? But we must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the first fruits for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth. For this purpose he called you through our proclamation of the good news, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter. Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

Psalm 17 Exaudi, Domine

- 1 Hear my just cause, O Lord; * consider | my com-|plaint;
listen to my prayer, which comes | not from | ly-ing | lips.
- 2 Let my vindication come | forth from · your | presence;
let your | eyes be-|hold what · is | right.
- 3 Weigh my heart, ex-|amine · me by | night,
refine me, and you will | find no · im-|puri-ty | in me.

4 My mouth does not trespass for | earthly · re-|wards;
I have | heeded · the | words of · your | lips.

5 My footsteps hold fast in the | ways of · your com-|mandments;
my feet have not | stum-bled | in your | paths.

6 I call upon you, O God, for | you will | answer me;
incline your ear to me, and | lis-ten | to my | words.

7 Show me your marvellous | lov-ing-|kindness,
O Saviour of those who take refuge at your right hand
from | those who · rise | up a-|gainst them.

8 Keep me as the | apple · of your | eye;
hide me under the | sha-dow | of your | wings,

9 From the | wicked · who as-|sault me,
from my enemies who surround me to | take a-|way my | life.

Gospel Acclamation

Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord. Peace in heaven and glory in the highest heaven.

Gospel Reading                      Luke 20. 27 - 38

Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to Jesus and asked him a question, 'Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. Now there were seven brothers; the first married, and died childless; then the second and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless. Finally the woman also died. In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her.' Jesus said to them, 'Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. Indeed they cannot die any more, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive.'

Homily                                      Fr Alex

Offertory Hymn                      495    God is working his purpose out (congregation's request)

Communion Anthem                César Franck: Panis angelicus

Bread of the angel-host sent down from God above; body of Christ our Lord in token of his love: O gift most wonderful! Christ as our sacrament: humble, lowly, all share his sacred feast.

Communion Hymn                      292    Jesu, thou joy of loving hearts

Post Communion Prayer      Gracious Lord, in this holy sacrament you give substance to our hope: bring us at the last to that fullness for which we long; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Recessional Hymn      114    Now is eternal life

Organ Postlude      César Franck: Prelude, fugue and variation

NOTICES

Stewardship at St Margaret's

Today we are taking a moment to reflect on our stewardship, and encourage everyone to consider their giving to St Margaret's. Please pick up an envelope from the back of church. We would be grateful if you could return any response forms to the Stewardship Secretary, Alison Stretton, by post or via the box at the back of church over the next few weeks.

Given the difficulties we all face this winter, we aren't making an 'appeal' as such – merely a brief presentation of our current financial situation, particularly with regard to greatly increased energy costs, and an invitation to continue to support our church if you are able. We are also offering an alternative way of giving, which will be explained in the letter. Thank you for all you do to enable our ministry here.

St Margaret's Christmas Cards - on sale now!

"May the joy of the angels and the peace of the Christ-child be yours this Christmas."

Featuring the Incarnation Window by Martin Travers these beautiful Christmas cards cost just £5.00 for a pack of ten. On sale at the back of church and during refreshments in the hall from Sunday, October 16th. If you live further afield and would like to purchase cards, please email Alison Stretton at astretton1@virginmedia.com for details of postage and how to pay.

Lunch Club

Thursday, November 17th at 12.30 pm

The next lunch club takes place on Thursday, November 17th. The cost is £7.00 for the meal and £2.00 for a glass of wine. Tickets will be on sale on Sunday, November 6th or call Sandy on 01943 603222 to book a place. Arrivals from 12.00 pm with lunch served at 12.30 pm.

Fr Bernard thanks those who bought some of his pictures at his recent exhibition in the Parish Hall. The proceeds of £206 was donated to the St Margaret's Development Fund.

Christmas Tree Festival

Friday 2nd and Saturday 3rd December

Volunteers Needed!

The Christmas Tree Festival takes place at St Margaret's on Friday 2nd and Saturday 3rd December. The church will be filled with 30 beautifully lit trees decorated by community groups. Christmas refreshments during the festival will include delicious Ukrainian treats. St Margaret's choirs, the Rock Choir, a Ukrainian choir, Christopher's organ recital and local musicians and singers will entertain across the two day festival. We hope some of our congregation will join us as volunteers – to set up, as welcomers and hosts, baking contributions for refreshments, sellers on the refreshments stall and clear up at the end. If you would like to volunteer please add your name and contact details to the forms at the back of church. For more information about contributions towards refreshments speak to Judith on 07780 752740.

Hymn suggestions

Thanks to everyone who has suggested hymns – from this Sunday they will begin to appear (with 'congregation's request' written in the news sheet). We'll be able to get more in when we start choosing hymns for January and February.

Advent Procession

Sunday 27 November, 6.30 pm

Yes, Advent is nearly upon us once again! Join us for our beautiful service of readings and music to begin the season, as we move from darkness towards the light of Christmas.

Please note the new date and time: Advent Sunday, 27 November, at 6.30 pm (no longer on the Saturday evening).

We will sing some of the great Advent hymns, and hear readings of the promise of the Saviour. The choir will sing music by Palestrina, Vaughan Williams, Rathbone, and MacMillan.

Please join us, and spread the word! Our Advent and Christmas schedule is posted on the back page of this booklet, and in due course little flyers will appear at the back of church – please do give some to family and friends.
