Collect

Almighty Father, who in your great mercy gladdened the disciples with the sight of the risen Lord: give us such knowledge of his presence with us, that we may be strengthened and sustained by his risen life and serve you continually in righteousness and truth; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading Acts 2. 14a, 36 – 41

Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: 'Therefore let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified.' Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, 'Brothers, what should we do?' Peter said to them, 'Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him.' And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, 'Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.' So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added to their number.

8.00 am: Psalm 81 (printed in the back of Common Worship)

10.45 am: Gradual Hymn 114 Now is eternal life

Gospel Acclamation

I am the first and the last, says the Lord, and the living one; I was dead, and behold I am alive for evermore.

Gospel Reading Luke 24. 13 – 35

Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, 'What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?' They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, 'Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?' He asked them,

‘What things?’ They replied, ‘The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him.’ Then he said to them, ‘Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?’ Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, ‘Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over.’ So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, ‘Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?’ That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, ‘The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!’ Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Organ Recital

Friday 5 May, 12.30 pm

The May recital has lots of little-known treasures for you to discover. The Prelude on 'Rhosymedre' by Ralph Vaughan Williams is the only well-known piece on the programme, where it is joined by the other two preludes on Welsh Hymn Tunes from 1920 on Bryn Calfaria and Hyfrydol. A delightful Minuetto and blazing Toccata by Gigout is followed by two anguished pieces by Jongen written during the First World War, and a Victorian impression of a Dionysiac orgy from Basil Harwood, organist of Ely and Oxford cathedrals, called 'Dithyramb'. Family Photo Album

We would like to continue with our plans to create a photo album of every one in our family here at St Margaret's. It is a great resource and a wonderful aid in helping to remember people's names. Alan and Anthea Ebbutt have kindly offered to be the 'official' photographers so they will be approaching you after the service over the next few weeks to snap your photo so everyone can be included.

Linda Davies: New Exhibition in the Parish Hall

Linda's art is inspired by the wonderful Yorkshire Dales and the coastal landscape of Northumberland. Working mainly in pastels Linda has been a member of the Yorkshire Pastelists Group for several years. She also enjoys using watercolours and has recently been experimenting with acrylic paints. Linda discovered the joy of creating pictures using her own handmade felt, enhancing them with embroidery and beads and making artwork using sea-washed glass collected from the beaches of Northumberland. To purchase a painting contact Linda on 01943 839750 or ajandldavies@yahoo.co.uk. A commission of 20% will be donated to St Margaret's Development Fund.
