10.00 am – SUNG MASS

Mass Setting Christopher Rathbone: Meanwood Mass

At the beginning of the service, turn to face the font

Opening Hymn 390 (tune 493) Jesus, where'er thy people meet

Collect

Almighty God, whose Son Jesus Christ is the resurrection and the life: raise us, who trust in him, from the death of sin to the life of righteousness, that we may seek those things which are above, where he reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading Acts 2. 42 – 47

Many were baptized and were added to the community. They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

8.00 am: Psalm 23 (printed in the back of Common Worship)

10.45 am: Gradual Hymn 77 The God of love my shepherd is (Psalm 23)

Gospel Acclamation

I am the first and the last, says the Lord, and the living one; I was dead, and behold I am alive for evermore.

Gospel Reading John 10. 1 – 10

Jesus said to the Pharisees: 'Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.' Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, 'Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits; but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.'

Homily Fr Alex

Offertory Hymn 351 Come, ye faithful, raise the anthem

Communion Motet Edward Bairstow: The King of Love [the words can be found at NEH 457]

Communion Hymn 122 Thou hallowed chosen morn of praise

Post Communion Prayer

Merciful Father, you gave your Son Jesus Christ to be the good shepherd, and in his love for us to lay down his life and rise again: keep us always under his protection, and give us grace to follow in his steps; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Recessional Hymn 124 Ye choirs of new Jerusalem

Organ Postlude Christopher Rathbone: Postlude on 'Vulpius'

Family Photo Album

We would like to continue with our plans to create a photo album of every one in our family here at St Margaret's. It is a great resource and a wonderful aid in helping to remember people's names. Alan and Anthea Ebbutt have kindly offered to be the 'official' photographers so they will be approaching you after the service over the next few weeks to snap your photo so everyone can be included.

April's Organ Recital

Thank you to everyone who supported this month's organ recital which raised £108.85 for the music fund.

Organ Recital

Friday 5 May at 12.30 pm

The May recital has lots of little-known treasures for you to discover. The Prelude on 'Rhosymedre' by Ralph Vaughan Williams is the only well-known piece on the programme, where it is joined by the other two preludes on Welsh Hymn Tunes from 1920 on Bryn Calfaria and Hyfrydol. A delightful Minuetto and blazing Toccata by Gigout is followed by two anguished pieces by Jongen written during the First World War, and a Victorian impression of a Dionysiac orgy from Basil Harwood, organist of Ely and Oxford cathedrals, called 'Dithyramb'. Volunteers required to help at the Service of Celebration to mark the Coronation of HM King Charles III

St Margaret's will host the Service of Celebration to mark the coronation of HM King Charles III on Sunday 7 May, 6.30 pm. Volunteers are invited to help with the service as welcomers and to serve refreshments. If you would like to volunteer please add your name to the sign up sheet at the back of church. For more information please speak to Anne Eaton or Judith Smith after services on Sunday.

En-List

Many thanks to all who returned 'En-List' forms. Emails will be flying out in the coming weeks as we move forward with all our groups and activities.

Celebration of the Coronation at St Margaret's

Friday 5 to Sunday 7 May

We will be celebrating this very important moment in our nation's life over the Coronation weekend, with a number of special services and events.

On the day of the Coronation itself, Saturday 6 May, we are not screening the event in church but encouraging members of the congregation to get together in each other's homes to watch it and celebrate together. A booklet of prayers will be available for you to use.

Friday 5 May – Prayer Vigil – 5.15 pm to 8.15 pm

Beginning with a special Evening Prayer at 5.15 pm, and ending with Compline at 8.00 pm, the church will be open for any who wish to come and pray for the King and our nation on the eve of the Coronation. You are welcome to come and go as you please through the evening. A booklet of prayers will be available for you to use.

Sunday 7 May – Family Service and tea party – 9.15 am to 10.30 am

After a brief service in church, we will share a tea party together in the hall. All are welcome.

Sunday 7 May – Sung Mass – 10.45 am

The Sung Mass will include special prayers for the King and will be followed by wine in the hall.

Sunday 7 May – Civic Service of Celebration – 6.30 pm

We are hosting Ilkley Town Council's official celebration, with a service of readings and royal music. It will be a grand and memorable occasion. Drinks will be served following the service. We are very pleased to welcome Fr David Hope to preach for us.
