Mass Setting George Oldroyd: Mass of the Quiet Hour

Opening Hymn 477 Ye that know the Lord is gracious

Collect

Lord, you have taught us that all our doings without love are nothing worth: send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love, the true bond of peace and of all virtues, without which whoever lives is counted dead before you. Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading Romans 5. 1 – 8

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

Psalm 100

- 1 O be joyful in the Lord, | all the | earth;
 serve the Lord with gladness and come before his | pres-ence | with a | song.
- 2 Know that the | Lord is | God;
 it is he that has made us and we are his; *
 we are his | people · and the | sheep of · his | pasture.
- 3 Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his | courts with | praise;
 give | thanks to · him and | bless his | name.
- 4 For the Lord is gracious; * his steadfast love is | ev-er-|lasting,
 and his faithfulness endures from gener-|ation · to | gen-er-|ation.

Gospel Acclamation

Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening. You have the words of eternal life.

Gospel Reading Matthew 9. 35—10. 8

Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.'

Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax-collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: 'Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, "The kingdom of heaven has come near." Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.'

Loving Father, we thank you for feeding us at the supper of your Son: sustain us with your Spirit, that we may serve you here on earth until our joy is complete in heaven, and we share in the eternal banquet with Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Organ Recital: Friday 7 July, 12.30 pm

The recital on July 7th concentrates on the two great organ composers, Bach and Howells. From Howells we have three of his Psalm Preludes, extended pieces meditating on verses from the Psalms – namely Psalm 37 (The meek-spirited shall possess the earth), Psalm 23 (Valley of the shadow of death – very gloomy) and Psalm 33 (Sing unto the Lord a new song – very joyful). The Bach is a selection of his 'Little Organ Book' (Orgelbüchlein), a set of about 60 short chorale preludes. We shall hear two groups, 5 in each, including chorale melodies (hymns) based on the Lord's Prayer and the Ten Commandments among others – all packed with Bach's amazingly inventive and ingenious musical character. Christopher Rathbone.
