10.45AM SUNG MASS

Mass Setting      Wood in the Phrygian mode

Opening Hymn      438

Collect Almighty God, whose Son revealed in signs and miracles the wonder of your saving presence: renew your people with your heavenly grace, and in all our weakness sustain us by your mighty power; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading      1 Corinthians 12. 12-31a

Just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit. Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many. If the foot were to say, ‘Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body’, that would not make it any less a part of the body. And if the ear were to say, ‘Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body’, that would not make it any less a part of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. If all were a single member, where would the body be? As it is, there are many members, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, ‘I have no need of you’, nor again the head to the feet, ‘I have no need of you.’ On the contrary, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, and those members of the body that we think less honourable we clothe with greater honour, and our less respectable members are treated with greater respect; whereas our more respectable members do not need this. But God has so arranged the body, giving the greater honour to the inferior member, that there may be no dissension within the body, but the members may have the same care for one another. If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honoured, all rejoice together with it. Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; then deeds of power, then gifts of healing, forms of assistance, forms of leadership, various kinds of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? But strive for the greater gifts.

Luther's chant for Psalm 19

Psalm 19 Coeli enarrant

- 1 The heavens are telling the | glory · of | God
and the | firma-ment pro-| claims his | handiwork.
- 2 One day pours out its | song to · an-|other
and one night unfolds | know-ledge | to an-|other.
- 3 They have neither | speech nor | language
and their | voi-ces | are not | heard,
- 4 Yet their sound has gone out into | all — | lands
and their | words to · the | ends of · the | world.
- 5 In them has he set a | tabernacle · for the | sun,
that comes forth as a bridegroom out of his chamber
and rejoices as a | champion · to | run his | course.
- 6 It goes forth from the end of the heavens and runs to the very | end a-|gain, and there is nothing | hid-den | from its | heat.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia,
Christ was revealed in the flesh, proclaimed among nations
And believed in throughout the world.
Alleluia

Gospel Reading Luke 4. 14-21

Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone. When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: 'The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour.' And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, 'Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.'

The recital on February 4th is a fairly random potpourri of music: the famous Boellmann 'Suite Gothique' (including the familiar Toccata); a couple of movements from the copycat Suite Modale by the Belgian, Flor Peeters; an Elegy by Kenneth Leighton (1965); a lovely musical portrait of light glinting through a cathedral rose window by Mulet called 'Rosace'; two fugues on the name of BACH by Schumann; and my own Fantasia on a Marlborough College Song called 'The Old Bath Road' dating from about 1976.

NOTICES

We are very pleased to welcome Duncan Milwain and our very own Emma Halliwell, ordinands from St Hild College, based in Mirfield, who will be gaining some experience of ministry here in a variety of ways over the next couple of months, including preaching and serving. Duncan is joining us for an extended placement until Easter. We are glad that they can be with us, and offer them a warm welcome to St Margaret's.

Christmas Appeal and Outward Giving

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the Christmas Appeal. The collection at the Crib Service was solely for our nominated charity Leeds Autism Services. Collections at the other services were split between LAS and St Margaret's. Including Gift Aid, the total sum raised was £1,708.93, of which £1,252.31 will be passed to LAS.

We regularly support a number of external organisations including Christian Aid, JJ Community Transformation, Otley Christian Resources Hub and The Children's Society. Our Harvest and Christmas Appeals are particularly important in raising funds. If you have any suggestions for charities we should support in the future, please speak to a member of the Outward Giving Group: Fr Alex, Alison Stretton, Catherine Beaumont, Jane Clarke, Michelle Still or Linda Whittaker.

Thank you to everyone who baked or bought a cake at our cake sale which raised £110 for St Margaret's Development Fund.

New Exhibition in the Parish Hall

by Catherine Gibson

I began drawing seriously at the age of five. Having been given a picture-book of Black Beauty, I fell in love with horses, and endlessly copied the illustrations in the book, and any other pictures of horses that came my way. Eventually my drawings ceased to have several fetlocks on each leg, and in time I knew the anatomy and movements of the horse so well that I could draw them from imagination in a wide variety of contexts. When I was about eighteen, I developed a similar passion for trees, and channelled the sense of wonder they aroused in me into sketches. I later joined Barbara Davy's classes in various media, and also became a member of Ilkley Art Club. I paint purely for pleasure, and all these paintings have given me much pleasure in their creation. Consequently, I have priced them simply to cover the cost of framing plus the commission to St. Margaret's. For more information, or to buy a painting please get in touch with me at church.
