10.45AM SUNG MASS

Mass Setting Rathbone: Missa semplice

Opening Hymn 178

Collect Almighty Father, whose Son was revealed in majesty before he suffered death upon the cross: give us grace to perceive his glory, that we may be strengthened to suffer with him and be changed into his likeness, from glory to glory; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading 2 Corinthians 3.12 – 4.2

Since we have such a hope, we act with great boldness, not like Moses, who put a veil over his face to keep the people of Israel from gazing at the end of the glory that was being set aside. But their minds were hardened. Indeed, to this very day, when they hear the reading of the old covenant, that same veil is still there, since only in Christ is it set aside. Indeed, to this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds; but when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit. Therefore, since it is by God's mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart. We have renounced the shameful things that one hides; we refuse to practise cunning or to falsify God's word; but by the open statement of the truth we commend ourselves to the conscience of everyone in the sight of God

Psalm 99 Dominus regnavit

- 1 The Lord is king: * let the | peo-ples | tremble;
he is enthroned above the cherubim: * | let the | earth — | shake.
- 2 The Lord is | great in | Zion
and | high a-|bove all | peoples.
- 3 Let them praise your name, which is | great and | awesome;
the | Lord our | God is | holy.
- 4 Mighty king, who loves justice, you have es-| ta-blished | equity;

you have executed | justice · and | righteous-ness in | Jacob.
5 Exalt the | Lord our | God;
bow down before his | footstool, · for | he is | holy.
6 Moses and Aaron among his priests and Samuel among those who | call up- | on his | name;
they called upon the | Lord — | and he | answered them.
7 He spoke to them out of the | pillar · of | cloud;
they kept his | testimonies · and the | law that · he | gave them.
8 You answered them, O | Lord our | God;
you were a God who forgave them and | pardoned · them for | their of- | fences.
9 Exalt the Lord our God and worship him upon his | ho-ly | hill,
for the | Lord our | God is | holy.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia.

Blessed are the poor in Spirit

For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

All Alleluia.

Gospel Reading Luke 9. 28-36

Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, 'Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah'—not knowing what he said. While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, 'This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!' When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

Offertory Hymn

401

Communion Motet

Tallis: O nata lux

O Light born of Light, Jesus, redeemer of the world, with loving-kindness deign to receive suppliant praise and prayer. Thou who once deigned to be clothed in flesh for the sake of the lost, grant us to be members of thy blessed body.

Communion Hymn

389

Post Communion Prayer Holy God, we see your glory in the face of Jesus Christ: may we who are partakers at his table reflect his life in word and deed, that all the world may know his power to change and save. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

NOTICES

The funeral of Pat Turner will take place in church at 10.30 am on Thursday, March 3rd followed by a reception in the Parish Hall.

Palm Crosses for Ash Wednesday

It's customary to burn palm crosses from the previous year to make the ash for Ash Wednesday. If you still have your palm cross and are happy to part with it, please give them to Catherine Gibson on Sunday, February 27th. Many thanks.

Stations of the Cross

Fridays through Lent, alternating between St Margaret's and Sacred Heart

We join with our Roman Catholic brothers and sisters in this joint witness through Lent. When at St Margaret's, Stations will be at 2.30 pm; when at Sacred Heart, Stations will be at 7.30 pm (for locations each week, see the Lent Diary). On Friday, March 18th at St Margaret's the service will include a special set of musical reflections on each station, composed and played by our very own Christopher Rathbone. Not to be missed!

Lent Booklet

Be sure to pick up a copy of our special Lent booklet today from the back of church. It's a handy guide to our liturgies and special events, and as a resource for prayer and Reflection during Lent.

Lent Course

Join us on Sundays in Lent at 4.45 pm (except 27 March) for our Lent Course. This year we'll be looking at the theme of 'transformation' in St John's Gospel. Sessions will be interactive, with prayer, reflection and teaching on the passage perhaps incorporating art and music, and discussion. We'll finish at about 6.00 pm – there's the opportunity to stay on for a cuppa, and then Evensong at 6.30 pm if you wish.

You can find more details in our special Lent booklet available in church.

DIARY DATES

Ash Wednesday

March 2nd

Ashes are an ancient sign of penitence; from the middle ages it became the custom to begin Lent by being marked in ash with the sign of the cross. Come and join us at either of our Masses and make a commitment together to the keeping of a good and holy Lent.

7.45 am Morning Prayer

11.00 am Low Mass with the imposition of ashes

5.15 pm Evening Prayer

7.30 pm Sung Mass with the imposition of ashes

Organ Recital

Friday, March 4th at 12.30 pm

The recital on March 4th is a selection of music by the great J.S.Bach: we start with a show-off prelude and straight-forward fugue in C; then two more chorales from the Leipzig set of '18' which Bach revised late in life for publication - which didn't happen. (This completes the set, if you've attended all the recitals over the last 10 years or so!) The highlight is a frightfully clever set of variations on Luther's Christmas hymn Von Himmel hoch (from heaven on high to earth I come): each of the 5 variations incorporates a canon (one part copying the other but starting on a different note): it was composed in 1747 for the Leipzig 'Society for Musical Science' which was obsessed with clever musical devices such as canon - Bach was a shoo-in for membership. Finally I shall play a splendid Fantasia in C minor followed by an incomplete fugue - the rest is lost (or was never completed) so I have written a few bars to finish it off and make it performable, however fore-shortened.
