10.45 AM SUNG MASS

Mass Setting

Stanford in B flat

Opening Hymn

443

Collect Almighty Father, who in your great mercy gladdened the disciples with the sight of the risen Lord: give us such knowledge of his presence with us, that we may be strengthened and sustained by his risen life and serve you continually in righteousness and truth; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading Acts 9. 1-6

Meanwhile Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?' He asked, 'Who are you, Lord?' The reply came, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do.'

PSALM 30 Exultabo te, Domino

- 1 I will exalt you, O Lord, because you have | raised me | up and have not let my | foes — | tri-umph | over me.
- 2 O Lord my God, I | cried out · to | you and | you — | have — | healed me.
- 3 You brought me up, O | Lord, · from the | dead;
you restored me to life from among | those that · go | down · to the | Pit.
- 4 Sing to the Lord, you | servants · of | his;
give | thanks · to his | ho-ly | name.
- 5 For his wrath endures but the twinkling of an eye, * his favour | for a | lifetime.
Heaviness may endure for a night, but | joy — | comes · in the | morning.
- 6 In my prosperity I said, 'I shall | never · be | moved.
You, Lord, of your goodness, have | made my | hill so | strong.'
- 7 Then you | hid your | face from me
and I was | ut-ter-|ly dis-|mayed.
- 8 To you, O | Lord, I | cried;
to the | Lord I · made my | sup-pli-|cation:

- 9 'What profit is there in my blood, if I go | down · to the | Pit?
Will the dust | praise you · or de-|clare your | faithfulness?
- 10 'Hear, O Lord, and have | mercy · up-|on me;
O | Lord, — | be my | helper.'
- 11 You have turned my | mourning · into | dancing;
you have put off my sackcloth and | gir-ded | me with | gladness;
- 12 Therefore my heart | sings to · you without | ceasing;
O Lord my God, I will | give you | thanks for | ever.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia.

I am the first and the last, says the Lord, and the living one;

I was dead, and behold I am alive for evermore.

All Alleluia

Gospel Reading John 21. 1-19

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, 'I am going fishing.' They said to him, 'We will go with you.' They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, 'Children, you have no fish, have you?' They answered him, 'No.' He said to them, 'Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some.' So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, 'It is the Lord!' When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the lake. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off. When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, 'Bring some of the fish that you have just caught.' So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, 'Who are you?' because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead. When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my lambs.' A second time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Tend my sheep.' He said to him the third time, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, 'Do you love me?' And he said to him, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go.'(He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, 'Follow me.'

NOTICES

The funeral of Dee Syratt takes place in church at 1.00 pm on Wednesday, May 4th.

More Tea, Vicar?

One of the great joys of my role is getting to meet so many people. I've managed to spend time with a good number of the congregation, but there are still many of you I would love to know better. At the back of church is a little box and some information slips: if you deposit a slip with your details, I will ring you up at some point over the coming weeks and invite myself round for a cuppa! Please do sign up, it would be lovely to see you.

Head Sidesman – Judith Smith

I am now replacing Janet Kish as 'Head Sidesman'. I would like to thank Janet for her wonderful work and all those who have also been doing such a great job. We continue to rely on your good services. We hope to encourage some more people to play a part in ensuring the smooth running of our services here in church and sharing the roles with those already mentioned. We particularly need more people to act as sidesmen, to direct people up to communion and to help take the collection. It would be lovely if anyone would like to meet and greet at the church door, so important to make new and old feel welcome; especially as, for some people, is a new experience. If you feel you would like to read the 1st lesson or prepare and read the intercessions it would be good to hear new voices in church. So, the more volunteers we can encourage the better! If you think you could help in any role but want to know more please ring me (Judith Smith) on 01943607935, you can leave a message if I am not in and I will return your call. Alternatively drop me an email at bbcsmith@talk21.com. Thank you.

Welcomers & Sidesmen: Refresher Session on Sunday, May 15th

There will be a brief refresher session with Fr Alex for welcomers and sidesmen just after the 10.45 service on Sunday, May 15th. Please make every effort to attend. Anyone who would like to join the team (see Judith's notice above) is also welcome.

From Joyce Cross – a Thank You

On behalf of St Margaret's, I would like to thank Fr Alex, our supporting priests and their wives for all they do for us. Catherine Gibson, our Sacristan and our servers. Christopher and our church choir who make it a pleasure to come and listen to them. All the people who arrange flowers to make our church so welcoming as we enter. Our church wardens, and Vickie and Alan, for their dedicated work at St Margaret's, the PCC and all our volunteers. We are lucky and privileged to have such supporting and dedicated people at St Margaret's. On behalf of everyone, thank you.

Bill Turner and family send their gratitude for the support given to them at the recent funeral service for pat. A letter of thanks has been received from the NSPCC for your generous contributions in total of £590 made in memory of Pat.

Help wanted for music-themed Refugee day trip at St Margaret's on Wednesday 1 June 2022

St Margaret's is hosting a day trip for refugee families from Bradford on Wednesday, June 1st on behalf of Churches Together in Ilkley, Wharfedale Refugee Response, and Refugee Action. It is aimed at secondary school students accompanied by some younger siblings, aged 7 – 17. We will offer sessions in drumming, guitars, a rap workshop and singing. We want to provide food for up to 80 people: 40 guests – 30 students and their parents, plus Refugee Action supervisors – and for about 30 music leaders and a catering and welcoming team to run the day. All CTI members are being approached to contribute food (vegetarian quiches, mixed salads, cakes, biscuits, fruit, tea, coffee and squash – further details to be provided) and help on the day. Please could St Margaret's members let Ros Beeson know in person or via email Rosalind.beeson@btinternet.com if you can help.

DIARY DATES

Organ Recital

Friday, May 6th at 12.30 pm

This will be a mostly gentle, meditative half an hour's music, including the beautiful and tuneful 'Three quiet pieces' of Whitlock's Reflections and several quiet but colourful selections from Vierne's 'Pieces in free style'. The only fireworks are in Vierne's Cortège and Divertissement and in the dazzling final Scherzo by Enrico Bossi. Christopher

May Devotions

Saturday 7 May, 4.00 pm

Join us for Sung Mass as we give thanks for the Blessed Virgin Mary, and celebrate with her our Easter joy. Traditionally, the month of May is a time of devotion to Our Lady, and reflection on her motherhood of Christ. Our guest preacher will be Fr Sebastian Hamilton, a friend of Fr Alex's, who will help us explore the rich themes of this time of year, and how a devotion to Our Lady may bring us closer to her Son. All are welcome!

May Day Cake Sale

Sunday, May 8th after morning services

St Margaret's Mission Fund Cake Sale takes place on Sunday, May 8th after the Family Service and Sung Mass. All cakes welcomed. Please bring them to the Parish Hall any time from 8.30 am on the day of the sale or ring Linda Whittaker on 601144.

Emergency First Aid Awareness Session

Thursday, May 12th at 7.30 pm

A member of St John Ambulance will be running an Emergency First Aid course in the hall at 7.30 pm on Thursday, May 12th (re-scheduled from March). Anyone is welcome although we particularly invite people involved in voluntary roles within St Margaret's to attend. Places will be limited. If you would like to attend but have not yet added your name to our list of attendees, please contact Vickie in the usual way. The course covers the following:

- Patient care and communication; observations; primary survey;
- making an emergency call; recovery position;
- Sign of Heart attack vs cardiac arrest; CPR; choking; severe bleeds; using an AED;
- COVID-19 advice in terms of first aid; using the right medical service

Ilkley and Otley Choral Societies Concert

Saturday, May 21st at 7.00 pm

Ilkley and Otley Choral Societies are proud to announce a concert paying homage to the Platinum Jubilee to be held on June 5th. The first half will comprise of Parry's "I was glad..." which was sung at the Coronation 70 years ago and Dvorak's "Te Deum". A Te Deum is traditionally sung at a time of national rejoicing. In this first half the choirs will be accompanied on the organ by St. Margaret's Director of Music, Christopher Rathbone. The second half is devoted to Brahms' "German Requiem", when the choirs will be accompanied by the Yorkshire Chamber Ensemble (leader Sally Robinson) using a reduced orchestral version. This Requiem does not follow the usual pattern of requiems – it is a work for the living rather than the dead. The choir will be joined by soloists Charlotte Trepess (Sop) and Oskar McCarthy (Baritone). The concert will be conducted by our brilliant Musical Director, Jennifer Sterling.

Tickets, £15, at <https://ilkleychoralconcerts.eventbrite.co.uk/> and from The Grove Bookshop (01943 609335). Also available from choir members. Concessions for students and u18 £5. Price includes a programme.

Civic Service celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee

Sunday June 5th at 6.30 pm St Margaret's

Ilkley Town Council is inviting residents to save the date for a Civic Service to enable residents in the town to celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee in June. We are delighted to host the civic service at St Margaret's. The service of words and music will include contributions from community groups and people of all ages from across the town, and there will be formal representation from local dignitaries and organisations. It will follow a community event on the Grove between 12 pm and 4 pm also in honour of the Jubilee. It is hoped the service will be an inclusive and joyful occasion celebrating the local community and providing an opportunity to give thanks for, and commemorate, the years of dedicated service given by Her Majesty. More details to follow.
